peacewithmusic GOES TO ISRAEL

MG MUSIC FOUNDATION

April 27, 2006 I headed to Israel to perform a peace concert with Israeli Arab, Israeli Jewish and American Jazz singers. The spirit of music brings these groups together without hesitation or worry. The May 8th concert was held in a small Arab Village near the major port city of Haifa, Israel. The concert on May 10th was held at the YMCA in Jerusalem across from the King David Hotel. The idea of having traditional Arabic music, Jewish music, American Jazz and more, all on the same program in Israel is a true experience and proof that the power of music can bring all cultures together.

The common bond and thread is the spirit of music directly from the soul.
